

Colonel PhD Mihai BURLACU
ACTING DEPUTY FOR THE
CHIEF OF COMMUNICATIONS AND INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY DIRECTORATE DEFENSE STAFF
OF THE ROMANIAN ARMED FORCES

Personal data:

Place of birth: Bucharest, Romania;
Date of birth: November 08, 1963;
Nationality: Romanian;
Civilian status: Married, one child.

Education and further development:

2016: In mission Course on Security Sector Platform, Romania;
2016: Hostile Environment Security Training Course and Safety and security training Course, Romania;
2011: Strategic leadership Course, Romania
2007: PhD in Military Science with the paper entitled “C4I systems of the Combined Joint Headquarters“, National Defence University, Bucharest;
2002: Advanced Joint Operations Staff Officers Course, Romania;
1997: Land Forces Brigade Course, Romania;
1988: Active-duty Commissioned Officer School “Nicolae Bălcescu“, Sibiu.

Professional experience:

2017: Acting deputy for the Chief of Communications and Information Technology Directorate;
2017: Head of Communications and Information Technology Branch/IT&C Directorate/ General Staff;
2016: Expert Adviser for Communications and Information Systems within the European Union Mission in Ukraine (EUAM);
2016: Commander of 48 Centre for Strategic Communications and Information Systems, Bucharest;
2008: Head of CIS Capabilities Planning Section/ IT&C Directorate/ General Staff;
2006: Head of Office Operations Communications/ IT&C Directorate/ General Staff;
2003: Staff Officer, Romanian Military Delegation to NATO and EU, Bruxelles;
1997: Staff Officer, Office of Communications and information systems interoperability/ IT&C Directorate/ General Staff;
1995: Staff Officer CIS, CIS Headquarters, Bucharest;
1985: Company commander, staff officer within the 48 Centre for Strategic Communications and Information Systems, Bucharest.

Distinctions and Awards:

- The Common Security and Defence Policy Service Medal;
- Communications and Information Technology Emblem of Honour;
- The General Staff's Emblem of Honour;
- 15, 20 and 25 years of meritorious service.

Foreign Languages: English