

Brigadier General Remus-Hadrian BONDOR

Chief of Strategic Planning Directorate

BG Remus-Hadrian Bondor was appointed to the current position in July 4th 2022.

Born on 19 June 1967, he embraced military profession in 1981 after his admission as a student at the Military High School.

He was commissioned as an Air Defense Missiles and Artillery officer in 1988 and his first assignment on active duty was with the 66th Air Defense Artillery Regiment, 5th Air Defense Artillery Brigade as a Reconnaissance and Target Acquisition Platoon Leader.

From 1989 to 2002 his appointments were with the newly formed 50st Air Defense Missile Regiment where he served as Platoon leader, Launching Battery Commander and Operational Plans and Operations Security Staff Officer.

In 2002 he assumed duties as Chief Operations and Training Plans Bureau in S.3, 5th ADA BDE HQ where, for six months in 2004, acted as ACOS OPS. In the same year, he rejoined 50th ADM Regt due to his selection as Chief of Staff 1st ADM Battalion.

Following graduation from the Command and General Staff Faculty, in July 2007, he assumed command of the 385th Mountain Artillery Battalion/61st Mountain Brigade.

After 37 months of command, BG Bondor was assigned Chief Training Plans Bureau, 4th Infantry Division HQ. In March 2015 and August 2016 he was successively promoted Chief of Training Section and Chief of G-7 Training to the same HQ.

From September 2017 to January 2018 he acted as chief of staff with the 2nd Infantry Division. Between February 2018 and June 2019 he assumed command of the 15th Mechanized Brigade. In June 2019 BG Bondor was selected as Director of Management to Joint Force Command Naples.

BG Bondor is a graduate of the Faculty of Electrotechnics and Informatics with the title of Engineer, and holds a Bachelor Of Science Degree in Military Science from National Defense University, Command and General Staff Faculty. He is a Distinguished Graduate of the US Army War College, Carlisle Pennsylvania, where he completed a Master of Strategic Studies and the Joint Warfighting Advanced Studies program.

His military education includes the Air Defense Artillery Basic, Advance and Staff Officer Courses, Advanced Joint Staff Officer Course, Advanced English Language Course, United Nations International Military Observer and Staff Officer Course, Introduction to NATO and Land Forces Command Course.

BG Bondor's awards and decorations include three Honorary Signs in Service of the Country (XV, XX, and XXV), the National Order "For Merit" in Knight Degree, the Badge of Honor of the Romanian Armed Forces, the Badge of Honor of the Romanian Land Forces, and the Medal Military Virtue third class.

He is married to Adriana Monica, and they have a son, Bogdan.